

CANDIDATES FOR THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS 2022

Following are the board candidates' biographies

MARGIE ELIASON:

Good Day! Margie Eliason here. I am seeking re-election to the Iron Blossam Board of Directors. During my term on the Board I've held the positions of Vice-President and President. I enjoy representing you, the Iron Blossam owners, on the Board and I take those responsibilities seriously. I am proud to have been on the Board that approved and funded the wonderful recent upgrades and renovations that the Design consultants, with guidance from Jim Maxwell, Lodge Manager, proposed to the Board. These updates have rocketed the Iron Blossam Lodge into world class status. I hope you like the refillable shampoo, conditioner, and soap containers, as the elimination of the disposable individual ones was a pet project of mine.

A brief recap of myself, I am a resident of Marysville, Washington, and my husband, Ken, and I own nine consecutive winter weeks at the Iron Blossam. This truly is our winter home, and you will find us out skiing every day. I retired from The Boeing Company in 2012, after a rewarding 28 year career of Research & Development Engineering Management. I have a Bachelor of Science in Chemical Engineering and a Masters of Business Administration, both from the University of Washington. I am on our Home Owners Association Board of Directors, where as Treasurer I automated our accounting system and helped secured a $1.1 million loan from the State of Washington to update our 1950s era water system.

The Iron Blossam and Little Cottonwood Canyon are very special places. I will work hard to keep them that way. My goal continues to be to 'stay the course' and support needed renovations and upgrades in a fiscally responsible manner. I appreciate your vote for another term on the Iron Blossam Board of Directors. THANK YOU!
